In celebration of Black History Month, we will have a special screening of the award-winning film, War Dance.

Directed by Andrea Nix and Sean Fine
Rated PG-13, 105 minutes, 2007

Set against the backdrop of Uganda's twenty year civil war, during which over 30,000 children have been abducted by a rebel army, this film tells the story of schoolchildren Dominic, Rose, and Nancy as they take a historic journey to compete in their country's national music and dance festival. Amidst the tragedy that surrounds them just being asked to compete brings pride to their tribe.
